P.C.

. This is an application challenging the conviction and sentence order passed by the learned Special Metropolitan Magistrate and confirmed in appeal by the Sessions Court.

. The parties have in the mean while carried out negotiations and arrived at an amicable settlement. The terms of this settlement have been reduced in writing as Consent Terms and placed before me today, which are taken on record and marked as "X" for identification. The learned counsel for both the parties state that the Consent Terms have been agreed between them and they are binding on both the parties i.e. the original complainant as well as the present applicant - accused. They further pray for disposal of this application in terms of the Consent Terms and order accordingly.

. Hence order in terms of the Consent Terms.

. The accused be released from jail forthwith on account of the acquittal order as passed above.

. Application disposed off accordingly.
